GOULD-DILLARD WEDDING FILLED PALAFOX CHURCH.

The large auditorium of the Palafox M. E. church was filled with friends last night to witness the marriage of Miss Lomie Gould, of this city, and Mr. William Charles Dillard, of Montgomery, which took place at 8 o'clock.

The bridegroom is a prominent young business man of Montgomery, connected with the freight department of the L. & N. Railway Company, and a nephew of Judge John Fuller of that city.

The bride is the lovely young daughter and only child of the late Mr. Edwin H. Gould, one of Pensacola's lamented Christian citizens, and Mrs. Gould, and is the special pride of a large family connection, because of her lovely disposition and charming personality. She is the first to marry and was the valedictorian of High School Class '02, and among the special guests seated in a body "within the ribbons," at her wedding were that class of twenty members and its teachers, Prof. Harry E. Graham, then principal, and his assistant, Miss Reese.

Miss Gould's record at school is of itself a distinction. During the ten years she attended she carried off first honors eight years. The two other years her health failed, but then she took second honors.

The church had been tastefully decorated by loving hands directed by Mrs. J. S. Roberts. Pot plants banked the altar inside the railing, while outside maiden ferns and cut flowers were banked in pots and vases.

A lovely canopy effect was given by ribbons carried from the chandelier over where the bride party stood to the corners of the seats and the altar railing, where they were fastened with pink hydrangeas and asparagus ferns.

The seats reserved for the family and special guests were also marked with white ribbon, pink flowers and ferns, and a large white satin kneeling cushion reposed on the altar step between the floral emblems.

Among those observed within the ribbons were Mr. W. D. Dillard, of Montgomery, father of the bridegroom; Mrs. Edwin H. Gould, mother of the bride, handsomely gowned in black silk tissue over black silk; Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Williams, of Milton; Mrs. DeJarnette, of Montgomery, and a number of ladies and gentlemen prominent in local society and church circles.

Mrs. J. M. Flinn presided at the organ and the bride party entered to the bridal chorus, "Faithful and True," from Lohengrin, sung by the church choir.

First came Mr. Cuyler P. McMillan, approaching the altar along the north side aisle as Miss Eulalie Hutchinson approached along the side aisle, the others following, gentlemen on one side, ladies on the other, in the following order and crossing at the altar: Mr. Wallace Lamar and Miss Edna Belle Duncan.

Dr. Joseph Brown Farrior, of Chipley, Fla., and Miss Onie Belle DeJarnette, of Montgomery, Ala.

The bridegroom and his best man, Mr. John Fuller, of Montgomery, and the maid of honor, Miss Rebecca Dillard.

Following Miss Dillard, the bride on the arm of her cousin, Dr. Clarence Hutchinson, who gave her away to the bridegroom, who met them at the altar, where the pastor of the church, Rev. B. C. Glenn, awaited them.

After the beautiful marriage ceremony, the bride procession, led by the bride and bridegroom, passed out down the central aisle, the gentlemen escorting the maid who had entered opposite him, completing a very pretty moving picture.

The bride was exquisitely gowned in white silk chiffon over soft white silk, and wore a veil thrown back from her face, arranged coronet fashion, and fastened with orange blossoms. She carried white carnations.

The maid of honor and all of the bridesmaids were fetching white silk frocks and carried pink carnations.

After the wedding the entire bridal party and the relatives were handsomely entertained at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. S. B. Hutchinson, 233 East Gregory, which was beautifully decorated with pot plants and quantities of cut pink hydrangeas. The parlor was perfectly beautiful.

The presents were displayed in the sitting room in the north wing, and made a gorgeous collection, chiefly of precious metals, cut glass and fine porcelain.

Among the most notable of gifts from the attendants were a superb imported cut glass berry set, including fruit stand, full set individual dishes and gold bowl sterling silver individual fruit spoons, of the bridegroom's young men associates in the Montgomery freight office, among whom is Mr. Fuller, the best man.

Bouillon set of hand-painted china from Dr. Joseph Farrior Brown, of Chipley.

Hand-painted porcelain ice cream set from the bride's cousins, Dr. Clarence Hutchinson and Miss Eulalie Hutchinson.

Cut glass bowl, Miss DeJarnette, of Montgomery, cousin of the bride.

Hand-painted chocolate set, Mr. Wallace Lamar, cousin of the bride.

Gold-bowled sterling silver cold meat fork, Miss Dillard, of Montgomery, sister of the bridegroom.

Gold-bowled sterling silver olive spoon, Mr. Cuyler McMillan, cousin of the bride.

Very handsome gold-bowled large berry spoon, Miss Edna Belle Duncan.

Beside these and filling several tables were gold, silver, cut glass, porcelain and other fancy and useful articles from relatives and friends in this city. Mobile, Montgomery and Matthews, Ala., Gulfport, Miss., Bastrop, La., and Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Dillard left on the 11:15 train last night for Matthews, Ala., for a short stay at his father's before going to their home in Montgomery, where they will board with Mr. Dillard's uncle, Judge John Fuller, 515 South Pearl street.

The bride was a vision of fair girlhood in her smart going-away suit of champagne colored silk, with a flower toque and eczetas to match.

They were accompanied by all the Alabama guests except Mrs. and Miss DeJarnette, who remain for a few days visit with relatives, and a merry party of home friends gave them a jolly send-off at the station, wishing them all kinds of happiness.

SOCIAL NEWS FROM POWELTON.

A party of Powelton, Fla., people spent last Saturday delightfully on Escambia river fishing, boating, bathing, horseback riding, and one of the young men had his kodak and secured some very comical snap shots. Moreover they got all the fish they could eat.

In the party were Mrs. J. H. Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Maxey, Mrs. Z. D. Cunningham, of Pensacola, Miss Lena and Miss Mary Mullins, Mr. Frank Bork, Mr. Fonda Seals, Mr. Callie Wilson, Mr. John Mullins, Mr. Charlie Wilson and Mr. Arthur Bridwell.

The entire party were charmingly entertained that evening by Mrs. Mullins at her home with flinch, music, and a good time generally.

Mrs. Cunningham left Monday morning for her home in Pensacola.

of 100-ton battleships and torpedo boat destroyers—they are not half so dangerous as a sick, disordered liver. Liver trouble is killing more people daily than all the wars of the world.

Parents should know that their children cannot grow and become strong men and women unless this one organ is kept in a healthy state, and men and women cannot remain strong unless they live active lives.

Not the diseases that are brought on from an inactive liver—

Constipation, indigestion, Chills, Fevers, Jaundice, Headache, Bad Complexion, Bad Breath, Kidney Trouble, and often Consumption.

The old and dangerous way to treat this trouble was with mercury or calomel, and we all know that in nearly all cases bad results follow. Father H. E. O'Grady has discovered a remedy known as which contains no mercury and is a guaranteed cure for all liver, stomach and kidney troubles.

J. A. Finch, Manager of the Postal Telegraph and Cable Company, says: "I have tried your Long Life Liver and Kidney Cure. It acts on the liver in the most pleasant and satisfactory manner of any medicine I have ever taken."

Mr. Cottrell took some fine views of the cruiser on the dock, and, incidentally of the party then and later on when they were enjoying the exhilaration of diving in the surf at the life saving station.

A delightful luncheon was served on the boat and the day was most enjoyably spent.

The Sunday school of Palafox M. E. church will picnic at Magnolia Bluff Friday. The first train will leave at 9 o'clock in the morning. The second train at 1:30 p. m. No charges.

The Medicine That Cures.

RENO, ORE., May 11, 1908.

Wine of Cardui absolutely does cure sick women. I consider it the most valuable medicine, and it is the cheapest cure any sick woman can use, as it takes no rule, only a few bottles to effect a complete and lasting cure. I especially recommend it for uterine or ovarian troubles, inflammation and ulceration, painful, profuse or scanty menstruation and it is a most valuable adjunct to use during the gestative period, insuring easy childbirth and speedy recovery.

It should have a place in every home as it is a true friend to wife, mother and maiden and I most heartily recommend it.

Dr. B. Buchanan

WRITER AND LECTURER.

Dr. Mrs. Buchanan is an authority on the science of medicine and certainly appreciates the great work physicians are doing for the relief of sufferers. But this does not deter her from expressing her views in praise of Wine of Cardui.

Mrs. Buchanan's high intelligence and long and successful experience render her advice of great value. Wine of Cardui regulates menstruation, cures bearing-down pains and relieves suffering women of the pain and misery to which their sex is heir. You have the word of Dr. Buchanan and thousands of other eminent women that Wine of Cardui will completely cure you.

All druggists sell $1.00 bottles Wine of Cardui.
